

I am a flight attendant opposed to the use of cell phones during flight. I believe it would interfere with the safety of the passengers and could be misused by terrorists. I am also concerned that the use of cell phones during flight could interfere with navigational equipment.